Mobile Digitization and Maker Space Lab for Community Archives

Dr. Jason A. Heppler
Digital Engagement Librarian
Assistant Professor of History
University of Nebraska at Omaha Libraries

Collaborating with local and regional communities to tell new stories and enable new research

We have a great team

Dr. Jason A. Heppler
Joyce Neujahr
Jackie Mitchell

Digital Engagement Librarian
Director, Patron Services
Creative Production Lab Supervisor

Project Lead, Mobile Archives
Director, Patron Services
Creative Production Lab Supervisor

Our community partners (so far!): Cassie Carroll, Kent Blansett, Linda Meigs, Cindy Krafi, Pie San Win Poor Bear, Valerie Killscrow Copeland, the Circle of Grandmothers, Florence Futures, Inc.
Universities and public engagement

Libraries that work with communities

Broadly impactful for our community partners
Serving our community engagement mission

Providing access to community archives

Helping promote responsible Native research

Rental of transportation

Digitization equipment for scanning
Rental of transportation

Digitization equipment for scanning

Maker space and 3D scanning

A plan for up to three trips under the grant

Continued outreach to communities

NEXT STEPS
Continued outreach to communities

Involvement of students

NEXT STEPS

American Indian Digital History Project

THANKS!

Dr. Jason A. Heppler / Digital Engagement Librarian
University of Nebraska at Omaha
@jaheppler
jheppler@unomaha.edu