

Congratulations to the 2021 Catalyst Fund Award Recipients

The Catalyst Fund was created to directly fund projects by member institutions that are designed to benefit the entire community of archives, libraries and museums. These projects were carefully reviewed and chosen based on their potential for scalability and maximum impact on all collections-holding institutions. Only LYRASIS members are eligible to apply for the Catalyst Fund.

Conservation Documentation Archive *
$23,375

Digital Scholarship
With Purpose
$36,300

Development of Research
Intelligence Tools that Contribute to the VIVO Platform:
An Open-Source Software
Project
$30,000

Open LiDAR for Accessibility
Community &
Schema Development
$19,223

Western Waters Digital Library
Map Interface
$17,220

* The inaugural Sandy Nyberg Award recipient is Duke University Libraries for their proposal to digitize and provide open access to legacy conservation treatment records. The Sandy Nyberg Award is named for Sandy Nyberg's pivotal role in the Catalyst Fund and her dedication to grants throughout her career.

Want to learn more about ALL the benefits of LYRASIS membership? Please email membership@lyrasis.org

For more information, please visit www.lyrasis.org.

catalyst fund

