

Organizational Home

The Lyrasis Organizational Home is a collaborative partner with Community Supported Technologies, providing essential operational infrastructure to help sustain and grow open source technologies for digital cultural heritage.

Value Proposition

Why choose the Lyrasis Organizational home for your Community?

A neutral home beyond the borders of the originating institution(s)

Signals Lyrasis' belief in the program's technology and goals

Enables the community to focus on program-specific needs and priorities

Part of a family of sister programs with common values, needs and interests

Access to a deep reserve of experience

Core Principles

The Lyrasis Organizational Home strives to adhere to these core principles.

Services and Roles

The Lyrasis Organizational Home works collaboratively with CST Programs. Lyrasis may also provide Hosting Services for these technologies. Hosting services are separate from the Organizational Home.
